

I strongly feel that the purposed band plan would not be in the best interests of the majority of those that use the 160 meter band. I would suggest that the band plan for 160 meters be strictly voluntary. The segmenting of the band by mode would only, for the most part, create large portions of unused or underused spectrum. Those that would benefit from such a forced band plan would themselves only benefit from it on occasion.

David Humbertson
W3NP
Licensed 1959
Extra Class